RSC President's Message November 2016

Hi Folks,

The days are cooler, leaves are changing, snow is in the air, and ski season is approaching. I know Mr. Obvious here but I do enjoy fall. I get to watch the season change into that magical time, WINTER! I have been checking the web cams at my favorite resorts and I know it's snowing at the places RSC is visiting.

November is the time for preparation for our trips. So pull out the equipment and clothes to give them a preseason look-over. Visit our local ski shops for tune-up, new equipment or join Sonny Clarke at Peter Glenn for the ski swap. Take the time before the snow to become ski fit; stretch, walk, bike... whatever gets you active and outside. We want all RSC members to be healthy and uninjured. Talk to members who attended the recent ski training class if it is an option for you get in shape. January is around the corner and trips will be leaving soon.

While skiing is my focus for membership in RSC, our Activities and Social Directors are working on many fun things to do. November brings the Peter Glenn Ski Fashion Show. Join us at the Clarion on Boulevard to see your trip leaders strut their stuff at the November 2nd Meeting. Join RSC at the November Happy Hour Social at the Blue Goat on Nov 16. Watch for the traditional Post Thanksgiving Day Hike, Peter Glenn Ski Swap, RSC Ski Movie, and the Tacky Light Tour Dec. 12. Remember, RSC is more than just skiing.

Thanks for all those who volunteered at the State Fair pour beer for a total of 220 man hours and $278 in tips for RSC charities. Great Job.

I hope everyone has a Happy Thanksgiving.

November 5, 2016 at 8:45AM

We will meet at the Gaskins Park & Ride on Mayland Drive right off I-64 behind O'Charley's at 8:45AM.

Do you enjoy wine tastings, visiting historic estates, and beautiful Albemarle County? Have you been looking for a reason to spend some time in Charlottesville? Have you ever wondered what wine to pair with what type of chocolate dessert? Or would you just like an excuse to spend time with your RSC friends or make new ones?

Leave the driving to the bus driver so we can party all the way up and back! Our luxurious bus will leave promptly at 9:00 for the approximately hour and fifteen minute drive to our first tasting at King Family Vineyards to sample their current Virginia wines. Our next stop will be Horton Vineyards for their Fall Cellar Tasting where we will enjoy and compare their 2015 & 2016 vintages along with a cup of chili or clam chowder to warm us. Afterwards, our driver will drop us off in Charlottesville for lunch, and then we will gather at Wine Loves Chocolate for a pairing of three wines with three truffles. Our day ends back at the Park & Ride no later than 5:30PM.

Post Turkey-Day Afternoon City Hike

November 25th at 1pm

Meet at Forest Hill Park picnic shelter #2 at the end of the road near the trailhead.

Need to burn those extra Thanksgiving food calories? Start out the holiday season on the right foot...burning calories on this 7.5 mile hike and enjoy some wonderful views of the James River. Finish your "Black" Friday shopping early and join in the fun!

Begin at Forest Hill Park parking lot at picnic shelter #2 at the end of the road. We will follow Reedy Creek down to the Buttermilk Trail and head towards Belle Isle. Once on Belle Isle, we will take the footbridge across the river and pick up the North Bank Trail. We will walk behind Hollywood Cemetery and Maymont Park and cross over the Nickel Bridge and pick up the Buttermilk Trail back to our starting point at Forest Hill Park.

HIKING DISTANCE: 8.5 miles (Aprox 3 hours depending on # of stops required and trail conditions)

TRAIL TERRAIN: A little of everything – mostly dirt, rocks, & gravel, with a little pavement, a lot of tree roots, and even a few stream crossings. Depending on the weather, the trail can be a little muddy and slippery in places so dress accordingly.

DIFFICULTY: Moderate-to-Difficult. We are in the city but the trail is very challenging in areas. This is NOT a good "first" hike for beginners.

WHAT TO BRING: Sturdy, broken-in shoes; water, and snacks. Dress in layers depending on the weather.

Meet in the parking lot at picnic shelter #2, which is located at the end of the road.

For more information or details please contact Joyce Parkey @ jocasta68@gmail.com (804-304-3479) or Brenda Bird at brenann0812@gmail.com (804-437-3609).

Please RSVP so that we have your contact information in case the hike is cancelled for any reason.

JACKSON HOLE, WY

March 4-11, 2017

PRICE $1,875

Valerie and Bruce are working hard to offer you the finest skiing in the Old West! Come join us for a great skiing adventure, luxurious accommodations and a great group of old and new friends.

We will be staying in town at the Parkway Inn (double occupancy hotel rooms), just a short shuttle ride to the mountain. Our accommodations include daily breakfast and vouchers for the town shuttle to and from the mountain, with town shuttles running all day and evening. The Town of Jackson is a charming Western town with plenty of restaurants, watering holes, art galleries and shopping for your off-mountain experience. See the antler arches that grace the town square, head to the Wort Hotel's Silver Dollar Bar or the famous Million Dollar Cowboy Bar for music and dancing, or try one of the restaurants that led Wine Enthusiast to name Jackson as one of America's 5 New Foodie Cities in 2014.

Jackson Hole just celebrated 50 years of skiing excellence. With that milestone come many improvements! Jackson Hole has always been known for challenge, but it is also ranked highly by SKI Magazine for excellent terrain variety. Everyone is familiar with one of the best known slopes in the world - Corbet's Couloir, but that's only one run of over 135 satisfying slopes! There are many rolling groomers and long blue runs. Jackson Hole has given the highest priority to improving the intermediate skiing experience by opening new "blue" terrain in the Casper area with new high speed quads, a new Gondola (2016) specific to the area and increasing the size of their grooming fleet and snowmaking capacity. The base altitude is only 6,300', below average altitude sickness elevation.

OUR ADVENTURE includes:

- Pre-trip party to reacquaint old ski buddies and meet new ones
- Flying into Jackson Hole airport, just a short ride to town
- 5 of 6 day lift tickets with extra day TBD
- Breakfast included daily
- Deluxe baggage handling in and out of condos
- Welcome Wine & Cheese reception
- World Class cross-country skiing available
- On trip Pizza Party and Happy Hours
- The always memorable "Fabulous Trip Banquet"
- Experienced and proven trip leaders
