

POE MUSEUM AND POE'S SHOCKOE BOTTOM WALKING TOUR

RSC SPOOKY FUN

Sunday, October 20, 2019
2:00 p.m.

Join us at the Poe Museum and Garden, (1914 East Main Street, RVA 23223). This group package includes an hour to explore the Poe Museum and Enchanted Garden followed by a guided walking tour of the museum neighborhood.

The Poe Museum: 2 to 3 PM. See highlights from the largest public collection of Poe memorabilia and artifacts in the world. Meet the museum's two black cats, Edgar and Pluto, and explore their home in the historic Enchanted Garden.

Poe's Shockoe Bottom Walking Tour: 3 to 4 PM This tour stops at sites provoking associations with some of Poe's greatest stories and poems such as the "The Conqueror Worm", "To Helen", and "The Premature Burial", selections of which will be read on the tour. The highlights include the neighborhood, as Poe saw it, including the Franklin Street Burying Ground, The Craig House, and The Masonic Hall. The walk is about an hour and it covers 8 blocks around the museum (a mile or less).

Poe Museum and Walking Tour too much suspense for you? Then join us down the street afterwards (around 4:30 PM) at Station 2 for our own RSC UnHappy Hour.

Please text Sandy Vermillera at 804-304-1689 if interested. Registration & payment is due NLT than Oct 13. We must have a minimum of 10 persons (registered with payment) in order to reserve the walking tour guide and group rate. (Max 25 persons)
Total cost is $10 – includes the Poe Museum and Poe's Shockoe Bottom Walking Tour.
Station 2 $ is on your own...

SIGN UP AT THE FIRST RSC MEETING ON OCT 2 & RESERVE YOUR SPOT!!
